Order

20/11/2025

1. Heard learned counsel for the parties.
2. Since the present appeals arise out of a common order passed by the learned Single Bench, therefore, the same are being decided by this common judgment.
3. The present appeals have been filed against the order dated 27.02.2018 passed by the learned Single Judge, whereby, the writ petitions preferred by the present appellants were dismissed as well as against the order dated 24.10.2019 passed by the learned Single Judge, whereby, the review petitions were also dismissed.
4. Briefly noted the facts in the present appeals are that in pursuance of an advertisement/notification No.1/2013 dated 07.06.2013 issued by the State Government for selection to the posts of Compounder/Nurse Grade Junior in Ayurveda, Unani and Homeopathy, the appellants-petitioners applied for the same and after completion of the selection process, when the appointments were not offered to them, the writ petitions were filed.

5. The principal contention of learned counsel for the appellants is that the State Government was under an obligation to complete the selection process by giving appointment to all those candidates for which the vacancies were advertised in the advertisement/notification issued by it.

6. Learned counsel for the appellants submits that after completion of the selection process, the State Government cannot withhold the appointments to the posts advertised by giving appointments only to 313 candidates. He further submits that the reason for halting the appointment midstream is de hors the law. He also submits that it is true that the appellants have no right to seek appointment and it is within the sole domain of the State Government to give appointment to the persons from the select list. If the State Government decides otherwise, no mandamus can be issued by the Court to the State Government directing to offer appointment, but the rider is that refusing to offer appointment should be on the reasonable grounds to be stated by the State Government.

7. Learned counsel for the appellants further submits that in the present case, the ground on which the selection process has not been proceeded with by giving appointment to the candidates named in the select list is contrary to Rule 4 (2)(a) of the Rajasthan Ayurvedic, Unani, Homeopathy and Naturopathy Service Rules, 1973 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Rules of 1973'). He also submits that since the Rule 4 (2)(a) provides the power for creation of any post permanent or temporary from time to time as may be found necessary lies with the respondents department, therefore, the State Government cannot stop the grant of appointment to the selected persons on the ground of not sanctioning these posts by the Finance Department.

8. Learned counsel for the appellants also submits that the reason for which the appointments are being denied to the appellants is not justified and is not in consonance with the Rules of 1973. He, therefore, prays that the present appeals may be allowed and the prayers made in the writ petitions may also be allowed by giving directions to the State Government to offer appointments to the appellants in pursuance of the selection process undertaken in furtherance of the advertisement/notification issued in the year 2013.

9. Per contra, learned counsel for the respondents submits that the State Government has taken a policy decision in the matter and after due deliberations with the Finance Department, it has been decided that all the posts advertised in the notification of the year 2013, cannot be filled-up on substantive basis in view of the orders issued by the Finance Department refusing to grant sanction for appointment on these posts. He further submits that the said decision was taken after consultation with the Finance Department and the authorities of the State Government and, therefore, this Court may not interfere in the policy decision taken by the State Government.

10. Learned counsel for the respondents also submits that after threadbare discussions with the agencies involved for selection process initiated by way of advertisement/notification dated

07.06.2013, a conscious decision has been taken for not filling-up the complete posts as advertised in the advertisement/notification. He, therefore, prays that the learned Single Bench has rightly considered the matter in detail and has correctly dismissed the writ petitions filed by the petitioners-appellants.

11. We have considered the submissions made at the Bar and gone through the relevant record of the case.

12. The undisputed facts narrated above clearly show that in pursuance of the advertisement/notification issued by the respondents in the year 2013 for filling-up 1005 posts of Compounder/Nurse Junior Grade in Ayurvedic/Unani/Homeopathy and Naturopathy, the recruitment exercise was undertaken and after completion of the selection process, the select list was prepared and the names of the present appellants were in the select list. However, out of the entire select list, 313 candidates have been offered appointment by the State Government, but for the remaining candidates, selection has not been carried forward and the State Government has taken a decision to fill-in the remaining posts on contractual basis through NRHM. The decision of the State Government is on account of non-sanctioning of such posts by the Finance Department. The policy decision to that respect has been taken keeping in mind all the factors including the factor of finance. The detailed decision in that respect has been placed on record before the learned Single Bench, which has been taken note of at paragraph-44 of the judgment. Learned Single Bench has rightly taken the view that it will not be appropriate for a writ court to interfere in the policy decision of the Government, which appears to be well-reasoned and justified.

We are in complete agreement with the view taken by the learned Single Bench.

13. We further note that even if the names of the appellants have been reflected in the select list, the same will not create any right in their favour for grant of appointment and no mandamus can be issued to the State Government to offer them appointment merely on the ground that their names have been reflected in the select list. We also take note of the fact that in the advertisement/ notification dated 07.06.2013, it has been categorically mentioned that the number of posts advertised in the advertisement/ notification can be reduced or increased, therefore, in that view of the matter also, we are not impressed by the argument of the learned counsel for the appellants that the reason given by the State Government for not filling-up the posts is not in consonance with the Rules of 1973.

14. In view of the discussions made above, the present special appeals (writs) filed by the appellants are devoid of force and the same are hereby dismissed.

15. Photocopy of this judgment be placed in each connected file.
