The petitioner has filed this writ petition being aggrieved by the certain conditions of advertisement dated 27.07.2026 issued by the respondents for inviting applications to the recruitment to the post of Safai Karmchari.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the respondents arbitrarily inserted the condition that the candidate, having experience of one year of cleaning work in a Local Body, shall only be eligible making the application. He further submits that the respondents have deprived the candidates having experience in some other institutions. He also submits that minimum age, prescribed under the said conditions, is 21 years, which is also contrary to the rules regarding the post of Safai Karmchari. He further submits that ineligibility, on account of having more than two living children, is also contrary to the rules and notification issued by the Government.

Issue notice of the writ petition as well as the stay application to the respondents. Rule is made returnable within two weeks.

Meanwhile, the respondents are directed to accept the application form of the petitioner online or offline and shall him allow to provisionally participate in the recruitment process, however, result of the petitioner regarding selection shall not be declared without prior permission of the Court.
